

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1898.

The State of New York spends over $11,000,000 annually to support her paupers.

There is some probability of the Legislature passing a bill making Assessors ineligible for re-election after serving two terms.

The citizens of Seattle, Oregon, have got enough of the Chinese. They went to work the other day and shipped every "mother's son of 'em" to San Francisco.

The cost of the Bowling murder trial, at Newark, O., it is said, will amount to over $6,000. The witness fees are estimated at $3,000. The arguments were begun Monday.

GEORGE Q. CANNON, the leading Mormon in the country, is hiding from the officers of the law at Salt Lake City. He is wanted for a violation of the Edmunds law—having more wives than the statute allows.

It is estimated that New York City spends $3,000,000 on charities and that $1,500,000 more in private contributions, are expended for the same purpose every year. The past experience of that city and State shows that this burden is steadily increasing.

As exchange says the outlook for the present year is full of hope for every one who is interested in any way in railroad building, and that it seems certain to be a year of general prosperity in this country. Work has already begun on several thousand miles of proposed roads, and a number of new enterprises have been started.

The Legislature has sat down on a resolution to investigate the charges of drunkenness against Thomas J. Henry, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, on the ground that the court was the proper place for such an investigation. Let the court proceed with the matter, now that the Legislature has refused to do anything in the case.

The trial of Col. Humphries, for shooting Craig Tolliver with intent to kill, ended in the Rowan Circuit Court last Saturday morning in a verdict of not guilty. The jury was out but a few minutes. The State was ably represented by Hon. Ben S. Robbins, of Lagrange. A party who was at Morehead last Friday says that Judge Cole is rigidly enforcing the rule laid down at the beginning of the term, and all are searched for concealed weapons every time they enter the court room. Good order has been maintained so far, and no trouble is anticipated.

NEWS OF THE NATION.

A NUMBER OF BILLS INTRODUCED IN THE HOUSE.

Americans to Purchase Foreign Vessels.
An Assistant Civil Service Examiner, Presidential Nominations—Mr. Dorschheimer Resigns—Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—After the transaction of some routine business the states and territories were called for the introduction of bills. Among those introduced were the following:

By Mr. Oates, of Alabama, to forfeit certain lands granted to the Mobile & Girard Railroad company, to confirm the title to purchase the Mobile & Girard Railroad company; to confirm the title to purchasers and to absolve said company from its obligations as a land grant railroad company.

By Mr. Dunn, of Arkansas, to amend Section 4,884 of the Revised Statutes, so as to prevent monopoly in the operation of the patent laws of the United States; also to authorize the purchase of foreign built ships by citizens of the United States and to permit the same to be registered as vessels of the United States.

By Mr. Mitchell, of Connecticut, to provide for an assistant civil service examiner.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The chair laid before the senate a number of communications, also a memorial of the legislature of Mississippi, favoring the Eads ship railway scheme.

A number of petitions were presented praying for the opening up to settlement the Oklahoma lands; also, a memorial of the Kansas legislature (by Mr. Plumb), setting forth that the course of Land Commissioner Sparks, in indiscriminately and indefinitely suspending land titles, was working great hardship to bona fide settlers in that state and urging Congress to take such steps as may be deemed necessary to secure the earliest practicable settlement of the questions involved. Referred.

Dorschheimer Resigns.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—United States District Attorney Dorschheimer has tendered his resignation. His resignation, his reasons for resigning, he said, were purely personal and without any political influence whatever. His private business, growing out of his management of the New York Star, demanded so much of his time and attention as to entail too much work on him when taken in connection with his duties as district attorney.

Postmasters Nominated.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate: Postmasters—A. N. Wallis, Parkersburg, W. Va.; Wm. C. Davis, Elizabeth City, N. C.; W. B. Burnett, Athens, Ga.; Alexander A. Davidson, Seymour, Ind.; George E. Fink, Columbus, Ind.; John J. Zeller, Ottawa, Ill.; Robert E. Rote, Geneva, O. Also a number of army promotions.

A GIGANTIC SCHEME.

Matt Morgan's Diorama's of the Late War to Travel the Country.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 9.—There is in preparation in this city a decided novelty for the next season, an attraction of powerful interest to the entire public of the United States, and one that will undoubtedly prove the most remunerative the stage has seen for many a day. It starts out as a capital stock company, duly organized and chartered under the laws of the state to the capital stock amount of $100,000. Matt Morgan Diorama company, organized for the purpose of painting and producing upon the stage of every theatre in the country a series of mammoth set battle pictures of the civil war, and playing under the special patronage of the United States Army of the Republic, and under the protection of the leading men of the army and navy of the United States. The series will embrace among its number the battles of Belmont, Fort Donelson, Shiloh, Vicksburg, Murfreesboro, Franklin, Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain, Mission Ridge, Antietam, Gettysburg and Lee's Surrender. These immense battle paintings are 40 by 20 feet, and will be productions from the masterly brush of the eminent artist, Matt Morgan, who will be assisted by a corps of capable artists and the valuable services of Gen. William T. Clark, adjutant general of the United States Army, and the documents, archives and reliable information from the war department at Washington. Mr. Morgan will personally visit all the battle-fields and sketch correctly the topography of the country, and gather much that will make pictures valuable and authentic.

These immense pictures will contain fully fifteen hundred portraits of distinguished union and Confederate soldiers and the costumes, even to the minutest detail, will be closely followed. The series will number fully twenty-seven pictures and will form, when completed, the most gigantic amusement enterprise ever undertaken. The financial direction of this enterprise will be in the hands of Mr. Bernard Neun, one of Chicago's representative young bankers, who will make Cincinnati his home until the enterprise is completed. The first of the pictures will be shown in the hands of the E. W. Kappell, whose career as a big game hunter and thief was so thoroughly ventilated recently.

Kappell was sent to the workhouse for luring in order to give his second wife's relatives a chance to arrange for his prosecution. This has been done, and the festive picture will be taken to Iowa on that charge.

The "Marine" Wants a Little Notoriety Along with Dempsey.

Boston, Feb. 9.—The morning papers publish a communication from George Leblanche, the "Marine," claiming the middleweight championship of America, and asserting that he has broken his pledged word to give Leblanche a battle. On the 5th Leblanche telegraphed Dempsey as follows:

"Will you make any match that you can stick to? I have up $500 for the same hands where you put $250. Put up $500 more and I will forward articles."

Later last evening the "Marine" received a telegram from Dempsey saying that he would arrive in Boston soon.

OUSTING THE LEPERS.

The Chinese Forebly Driven Out of Seattle—Great Excitement.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 9.—The Chinese are being driven out of Seattle, W. T. It is understood that the Knights of Labor are at the head of the movement. The Chinese are marched to the steamer Queen of the Pacific, lying at her wharf, and the rioters pay a storage passage to San Francisco for each one put on board. The steamer plies regularly between San Francisco and Puget Sound. At this hour, 2 p. m., about one hundred Chinese have been put on board. On an attempt being made by the rioters to force other Chinese on board without paying fare, which is $10 in each case, the captain stationed men with hoses prepared to throw live streams of boiling water into the mob if such an attempt is renewed.

The mayor of Seattle and other prominent citizens have telegraphed to Vancouver barracks, asking Gen. Gibbons, commanding the department of Columbia, for troops. Gen. Gibbons hastily telegraphed to the war department, but no authority has yet come from Washington to send troops. Vancouver is distant 150 miles from Seattle, and the shortest time in which troops could be transported is seven hours, and if they should start to-night they would be too late to prevent the expulsion of the Chinese.

Chief Justice Grover, of Winston Territory, has telegraphed to Attorney General Garland, asking him to use his influence to have troops ordered to Seattle. As yet no bloodshed or incendiary has occurred, but it is believed that there will be serious trouble.

A MAD MATRIMONY.

Dusenbury Deals a Death Blow to His Aged Mother.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—A special from Peru, Hillsborough county, Pa., says: "Saturday night a young man named Dusenbury entered the house while his mother was alone, and without provocation or warning, killed her by chopping off the top of her head with an ax. When the murdered brother entered the house the corpse was sitting bolt upright in a chair and she alleged (many men stood back behind, crying in piteous tones: 'My God, I've killed my mother.' The matricide says he became rational the moment after he struck his victim. Chief Justice Grover, of Winston Territory, has telegraphed to Attorney General Garland, asking him to use his influence to have troops ordered to Seattle. As yet no bloodshed or incendiary has occurred, but it is believed that there will be serious trouble."

A Pugnacious Sheriff.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 9.—Sheriff Sam Bressford appeared in the police court with a smiling face, to answer to the charge of assaulting with intent to kill Henry Loewenstein in the Pearl street market house Saturday morning. Through his attorney, Moses Wilson, he waived examination, and gave $500 bond for his appearance before the grand jury. George Campbell is his bondsman.

Through the Head.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 9.—Mr. John K. Randall, the librarian of the Mercantile library, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart, at his residence on North Charles street, with a small pistol. No cause is assigned for the deed. Mr. Randall was appointed librarian of the Mercantile library in June, 1885.

Plasterers' Strike.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 9.—The union plasterers at the court house are out on a strike. Contractor Grace last Saturday night gave them the ultimatum to quit the union or his employ. They chose the latter.
